

Tuesday 27th May

ME THEN, ME NOW – an intergenerational project. 11am
Brockagh Centre

The group are working on a project which promotes 'positive ageing'. Each person will have their photograph taken with a photograph of themselves in their younger days and they will talk about their lives when they were younger, their hopes and dreams.

Saturday 31st May

The Garden Theatre Company
present The Queens of Pilmico
written by Derek Masterson. 8pm
Brockagh Centre

"Sisters to the bitter end." It's Alma's wedding day, only she's marrying her older sister Rita's ex-fiancé. An hilarious heart-warming Irish drama, this two act play set in the early 1950s tenements of Dublin will leave audiences with smiles on their faces and tears on their cheeks. Admission 8 euro and 5 euro for oap.

In order to allow us to cater for everyone and as some Bealtaine activities are limited by space please give us a call to book your place (particularly groups). Contact Bernadette on (0404) 45600 or email laraghit02@eircom.net

Bealtaine 2014

The Bealtaine festival is Ireland's national celebration of creativity as we age. This festival presents over 3,000 performances, concerts, workshops, dance classes, films and creative events taking place all over Ireland.

The theme for the 2014 festival is 'And catch the heart off guard' - a phrase from Seamus Heaney's poem Postscript.

BEALTAINÉ AT BROCKAGH 2014

Brockagh Resource Centre
Laragh, Glendalough
Co. Wicklow.
Tel: (0404) 45600
laraghit02@eircom.net
www.brockaghresourcecentre.ie

1-31 may
bealtaine festival

Bealtaine at the Brockagh 2014

With Laragh Glendalough & District Active
Retirement Association

Tuesday 13th May

ROSALEEN DURKIN -Ancient and Holy Wells of Co. Wicklow 11am Brockagh Centre. According to 1950s survey. Ireland has approximately 3000 Holy Wells, the highest of any country in the world. Rosaleen Durkin will talk about the history of the ancient wells of Wicklow including the Celtic/Christian traditions, myths and customs associated with the visits to the wells.

---

Bealtaine 2014

---

No formalities ~ just great fun!

Highlights of Bealtaine 2014

Sun 11th May - I'll live 'til I die 3pm
Brockagh Centre - Adm €3

Tues 20th May - A Musical Coffee Morning St Kevin's Church 11.30am & Brockagh Centre Afterwards

Sunday 25th May - Afternoon Tea Dacnce with the Wicklow Man 3-6pm.
Adm €3

Saturday 31st May - The Queens of Pimlico play- 8pm, Adm €8 & €5 for oaps

Tuesday 20th May

A Musical Coffee Morning – with special guests Davidson College Church Choir. Also featuring the Co. Wicklow Get Vocal Choir on Tuesday 20th May at 11.30am in St. Kevin's Church and afterwards at the Brockagh Centre. Admission free – donations in aid of "Make a Wish Foundation" and the "Irish Heart Foundation."

Sunday 25th May

Afternoon Tea Dance . Kick up your heels and enjoy a great afternoon of dancing and fun with the Wicklow Man from 3-6pm in the Brockagh Centre. Meet up with old friends and make some new ones.

Refreshments served. Admission €5

Tuesday 6th May

Go for Life Games – learn how to “lob”, play Scidils and Flisks. 11am until 12.30. These are simple but skillful games for a fun morning followed by our monthly which this month is in Lynham's Hotel Laragh at 12.45pm. Please book with us.

Sunday 11th May

I'll Live Til I Die – A Show in Words & Music about the balladeer Delia Murphy. In the late 1930s, all through the war years, and for many years afterwards, Delia Murphy had the nation singing along with her in songs like The Spinning Wheel, Three Lovely

Lassies from Bannion, The Blackbird. Hear some of her songs and stories from her life from Carmen Cullen a niece of Delia's and musician Jerry Anderson. 3pm Brockagh Centre - Adm €3.